

I don't feel the public interest is being served by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. The dangers of media consolidation are evident when preemption of prime time programming is allowed for essentially a free political ad. Media ownership rules need to be strengthened, not weakened. We need more substantive news about issues that matter.

Thank you.
Sandra Warren